Hey GLACURH!

Can you believe it? GLACURH 2010 is in a few short days at the University of Illinois-Urbana Champaign! Delegations will be having fun and learning new things, CCs will be working their magic in the boardroom, and advisors will be struttin' their stuff for the good of their schools. What a wonderful journey we will set out on! I cannot believe the opportunities we have to be in positions like these. How magnificent! If you see me at GLACURH, be sure to say, "Hey you!" and introduce yourself. This would be absolutely incredible! See you at the conference.

Stay Classy GLACURH!

5. Just put it on my bill!

Fun-Fundraising Ideas

By popular demand, here are some ideas for RHA fundraising. Most of these can be adaptable to any size campus population and can be used for the RHA itself or for a nonprofit org.

- Candy-grams (Christmas/Valentines)
Sell candy-grams and deliver them to rooms/mailboxes.
- Packages from home
Send letters to resident's parents asking them to buy an "RHA-made" package for their son or daughter.

- Coordinate with Campus Companies

Does your school rent bed lofts or sell carpeting? Coordinate with those companies by helping with delivery/installation to receive some funding.

Other fun ideas:

- Dance Marathon
- Yard Sale
- T-shirt Sales (Everyone loves t-shirts!)
- Wristband Sales
- Benefit Run or Sports Tournament
- Sell Services (Cook/Clean/Massage)
