Four Year Service Pin Application

Name _____ School _____

Before filling out this application, please be sure you meet the following criteria:

- Recipients must be a student at a GLACURH member school in good standing to be eligible.
- Recipient must have been in his/her campus residence life for at least four (4) years. This need not be consecutive years, but four (4) years total. They may also be at different institutions if all other criteria are met.
- Recipient must have had at least two (2) years involvement with his/her campus residence hall government. The other two (2) may be in other residential life capacities (resident assistant, desk attendant, program assistant, etc.)
- Recipient must have attended at least four (4) GLACURH related conferences. These need not be consecutive, just total conferences attended. At least one of these has to be a GLACURH regional conference. GLACURH related conferences include the GLACURH conference, the NACURH conference, and the No Frills conference.
- The recipient may have graduated within sixty (60) days of the award.
- The recipient does not need to be present to get the pin. A representative from his/her institution may receive the award on his/her behalf.

Please answer the following questions. If there is not sufficient space, please attach additional sheets.

1. List your four years of service to university owned and/operated housing. You should include service to any residence hall organization(s). Please indicate the year (1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th) in which you participated in the activity. There must be at least one activity per year.
