ok so in regards to affiliations, please note that your institution must be fully affiliated for you to have voting rights in boardroom. If you are expecting voting rights in both boardrooms for your institution then both sections of affiliations need to be complete without errors paladin075 has left this chat.

SAACURHRCCDE

if you are unsure on your affiliation status, shoot me an email and I can check for you.

Additionally, please note that if you wrote a bid for No Frills and your school is not properly affiliated the bid is not acceptable.

are there any questions specifically about affiliations right now?

tinybubbles9009@yahoo.com has left this chat.

ok seeing none, I will be turning the chat back over to Stephen, SAACURH Director. yield

SAACURHRCCDE

X- Jasmyne Channel

MyRedGummysBears

ok. so i would like to say that you all turned in some amazing bids thus far. we collected over 400 MG of data with the award bids

jasmyne

Is there anything specific that we need to bring to No Frills?

MyRedGummysBears

i will get to that later in the chat, so hold on for a minute please

yield

MyRedGummysBears

ok. so with the bidding process

we tried something new this year with a grace period. this period was about a 2 day period after bids were submitted and reviewed by the SEC for meeting criteria

if there was something found that was not in line with policy, you were given no more than 2 days to correct it so your bid would not be marked against policy on the website when bid go up

we would like to quickly get your feedback in this grace period process. did you like it, hate, change it, etc.?

X-Nikki Murphy

fau.jupiter.ncc@gmail.com

X- 'Rebecca Fondren'

rebeccaafondren

we are looking at potentially making it policy, but wanted to see how it looked on your end

nikki

xZack

zackw618@yahoo.com

I thought the process was a great idea, but when it came to having time to re-submit the bid, not enough time was necessary if the university didn't bend-over-backwards to accomodate to a last minute thing. Maybe expanding the time more and giving more time to each school to re-submit. Just a suggestions. Yield.

ok

rebecca

This was just to revise bids that had previously been submitted- not to allow additional time for bids to be submitted, correct?

that is correct. not something for late bids.

ok, yield.

zack

I like the concept. But I'm concerned that if the SEC is reviewing bids for policy violations, what is the purpose of the B.I.D. committee? There's no incentive to send in your bid to the committee.

zackw618@yahoo.com

this year, the BID committee only had 1 member, so the committee didn't really function as it should have

@ Zack %%%

1355681617@facebook.aol

the SEC was all members and we did not feel it was appropriate for us to review content of a bid and offer suggestions

I understand. But if this is something we're putting into policy, would the SEC be reviewing the bids during the grace period or would the BID committee be reviewing it?

%%%

sa_rcca@nacurh.org

the SEC would be reviewing bids during the grace period

i hope that in future years, the BID committee can grow and have members to actually be a committee that develops bids

%%%%%%%%%

SAACURHRCCDE

Yield

zackw618@yahoo.com

does that make sense?

@ director %%%%%%%%%

sa_rcca@nacurh.org

POI (i think)

emlaaay1028

If the BID committee looks for violations though, and the SEC is going to do it anyways, I think that hurts the committee. But as I said, I like the concept and I understand your reasoning. Yield.

zackw618@yahoo.com

alright, thanks for your input everyone, the sec has some ideas now of where to go with this as potentially legislation

x-emily

if the sec is reviewing bids for positions, can we make certain that they are giving good reviews for positions they might be running for? isn't the point of the committee to make a voice without an opinion?

emlaaay1028

or am i missing the point?

emlaaay1028

megan is copying policy

Section F. The Bid Instruction and Development (BID) Committee will develop "How to Write Bid" resources, publicize bid processes and timelines, and serve as a resource for schools going through the bidding process. This committee will review bids prior to final submission deadline to ensure policy alignment. The committee shall establish additional yearly objectives under the direction of the Regional

Communications Coordinator of NRHH and Special Projects. (SA 10)

the goal of the committee is to actually help you develop the bid and its content

right

emlaaay1028

the SEC is only viewing policy violations for awards, positions, conference hosts, etc.

okay.

emlaaay1028

at no point will the SEC offer suggestions to content

So will the policty be to submit the bid at any point to help develop content?

emlaaay1028

with the lack of committee interest for this one this year. this committee was limited its actual function

gotcha. yield

emlaaay1028

that is supposed the practice of the BID committee, but sadly couldn't happen effectively this year.

ok. so onto another topic

no frills!!!!

so we have a few updates for all of you. the affiliation grant, programming grant, and SEC position bids are due this upcoming friday

please apply for these grants, the last thing i want to see if you as member institutions not get money that has been allotted to you legislation will be due on march 11th

we didn't receive any bids for commitment to diversity and the hallenback service award

now i know that you all have an advisor who has been there for at least 5 years who is deserving of the hallenback service award and i know your institutions do programming on diversity

so please bid for these, these two bid categories are our worst submitted since i've been involved. and if you have questions about them. then ask anyone on the SEC

FAUNCC went offline before accepting your invitation.
