Quorum shall be defined as a simple majority (50% + 1) of the Regional Directors and/or their designee.
 - B. Special meetings of the NBD may be called at the request of the National Chairperson or by a signed and valid petition of 25 percent of the NCCs (member schools in good standing) or any four (4) voting members of the NBD (both voting and ex-officio must be notified by the National Chairperson of such a meeting by registered mail).
 - C. All meetings of the NBD are open to members of NACURH and the public. However, the NBD reserves the right to move into executive session at such time as the majority of those registered quorum in attendance deem it appropriate.
- Sec. 2 Corporate Business Meeting
 - A. The annual meeting of NACURH shall be held during the National Conference. The annual meeting of NACURH shall be defined as a formal, open public meeting, at which time the NBD will report on the status of NACURH, receive any petitions for recall or referendum, discuss National business, present the annual budget and do other work deemed by the NBD and member schools. A quorum for this meeting shall be 40 percent of the member schools.
 - B. The Chairperson of the Annual meeting shall be the National Chairperson, or in his/her absence the National Associate for Finance.

Article X-Mail Legislation

- Sec. 1 From time to time issues may be brought to the attention of the NBD which may need a resolution of approval before any action can be initiated in the name of NACURH. The following is the procedure to be taken in this instance.
 - A. The National Chairperson shall prepare and distribute mail ballots to the voting members of the NBD for their consideration and disposition in accordance with policies set forth by the NBD.
 - B. NBD members, within seven (7) days, shall return their respective ballots to the National Chairperson, who shall then distribute by mail the results of the balloting.

- C. All mail ballots returned shall be certified at the next NBD meeting by a majority vote of the voting membership present and voting where there is a registered quorum of the NBD in attendance.
- D. If errors have been made relative to the result of the mail balloting, that action shall be corrected immediately.

Article XI-Status of Corporate Signatory Agent

The National Chairperson and/or the National Associate for Finance shall act as NACURH's signatory representative in all those legally binding agreements and contracts that have been approved by the NBD.

Article XII-Regional Affiliates

- Sec. 1 Regional affiliates shall be created according to guidelines established by the NBD relative to geographical distribution of member schools of NACURH. Charters approved by the NBD shall be issued to each regional affiliate at the first conference of the regional affiliate. This charter shall identify the geographical boundaries of the region and shall establish a procedure for election and recall of a Regional Director by National Communication Coordinators in attendance at the Regional Conference. Regional Affiliates may petition the NBD for changes of their charter.
- Sec. 2 Officer(s) of the Regional Affiliates
 - A. Regional Affiliate officer(s) must include the Regional Director and the Regional Associate Director positions.
 - B. The Regional Director shall sit as a voting member of the NBD. In his/her absence, a person designated by that Region's procedure shall assume the privilege and responsibilities of the absent Regional Director on the NBD, unless stated otherwise in the bylaws.
 - C. Regional officer(s) shall function in a coordinating role for NACURH and its local member schools and shall represent the interests of the particular Region at the NBD meetings and at the National conference.
 - D. Regional officer(s) shall be elected by those paid member schools that are associated with their respective Region at a regional meeting.
 - E. Terms of office for Regional Directors shall be determined in the Regional Affiliate's charter.

- F. Regional Directors shall be responsible for carrying out National policy.
- G. Regional Directors are responsible to NACURH, as well as to their Region, and shall serve to benefit both.

Article XIII-National Conference

- Sec. 1 NACURH shall hold an annual National Conference for all member schools of NACURH and observers from non-member schools.
- Sec. 2 The National Conference site shall be selected after review of written bids showing facilities, programs and agreement from the administration for the proposal. This requirement may be waived by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the NBD.
- Sec. 3 The fees for the National Conference shall be established by the host school upon consultation and approval by the NBD. The National Associate for Finance, with the Conference Chairperson, shall be responsible for maintaining and monitoring the annual conference budget.

Article XIV-Parliamentary Authority

Robert's Rules of Order, the edition to be specified in the National Policy Book, unless superseded by the Articles of Incorporation, these bylaws, or NBD policy, shall be NACURH's parliamentary authority. All meetings shall be run with parliamentary policy.

Article XV- National Communication Coordinators

- Sec. 1 Upon becoming an member of NACURH, each participating representative student governing unit shall select a National Communication Coordinator who shall serve as the liaison between the National organization, its Regional affiliates and the local school.
- Sec. 2 The NCC, or his/her designee, shall be required to organize and submit a Resource File Index report. This report must be filed with the NIC in order for his/her respective school to receive membership benefits.
- Sec. 3 The NCC, or his/her designee, shall serve as delegation chairperson of his/her school during Regional and National conferences.
- Sec. 4 The NCC, or his/her designee, shall have the right to vote during a corporate meeting.
- Sec. 5 The NCCs national function shall in no way be construed as diminishing his/her present and/or future regional functions.

Article XVI-Awards

- Sec. 1 NACURH shall give National awards (see awards section of the National Policy Book).
- Sec. 2 The Executive committee may institute awards for extracurricular activities within the jurisdiction of NACURH.

Article XVII-Amendments and Ratification

- Sec. 1 No changes in the bylaws may occur by phone or mail ballots.
- Sec. 2 Proposed bylaw changes must be published in a NCC newsletter or otherwise presented in writing to the NCCs by the National Associate for Administration at least 24 hours before the National Corporate business meeting.
- Sec. 3 Bylaws may be amended by the NBD upon a two-thirds (2/3) approving vote of those present and voting; such changes taking effect upon the same concurrence by the NCC at the Corporate meeting. All bylaw changes approved by the NBD must be brought to the floor, discussed and voted on by the NCCs at the Corporate meeting.
- Sec. 4 These bylaws may also be amended by an approving vote of two-thirds (2/3) of a quorum of members of NACURH at a regular or special meeting.
- Sec. 5 Amendments to these bylaws will become effective immediately upon adoption.
- Sec. 6 Ratification of these bylaws will become effective immediately after a three-fourths (3/4) vote by the NBD, and majority vote by NCCs, whose power is invested to them by the Articles of Incorporation and the State Laws of Oklahoma.
