

NACURH/ACUHO-I

Daniel Siler Program of the Year Selection

NACURH Policy Book | Program of the Year

- This award is recognized and co-sponsored by the Association of College and University Housing Officers-International (ACUHO-I).
 - The recipient of this award presents their program via webinar in collaboration with ACUHO-I.
- Any affiliated school may submit one program per year to be considered for this award.
- For the 2024 award bid, programs must have occurred between October 2, 2022 and November 9, 2023.
- Content, excluding cover page, regional letter of support, and citation page, is limited to 20 pages.
- Required accompanying forms (only the Conference Resource Consultant will have access to these) include:
 - Application Form
 - Presenter's Commitment Verification Form
 - Newsletter Article
 - Bidding schools must submit a 500-1,000 word newsletter article. The article must describe the who, what, where, why, when, and how of the program. There are no specific requirements for the actual format of the article; however, a quality article will provide adequate information for another campus to use in developing a similar program.
- Bids must be created using universal design principles, which is the design and composition of a bid so that it can be accessed, understood, and used to the greatest extent possible by all people, regardless of ability status. This includes, but is not limited to:
 - Body type must be 10-12 point font.
 - Text must be placed on solid color backgrounds or in solid color text boxes on decorative backgrounds
 - Designs must be universally colored
 - Alt text must be added to images
 - Bids must be screen reader accessible
 - All pages counting toward the page limit must have page numbers on them.

Daniel Siler Program of the Year Selection

- Title page, citation page, and regional letters of support are not included in the page count.
- Bids may not include links or references to materials outside the bid (i.e. embedded audio, animation, video, etc.)
- All bids must be submitted in PDF format.
- Themes for any and all bids must be culturally appropriate and aware (i.e. being conscious of how bid themes, graphics and language affect and impact individuals), inclusive, accessible to all individuals, and not bring offense to any group(s) of persons. Please note that NACURH reserves the right to request edits of any bids that do not meet the aforementioned standards. Consultation is available if there are questions on themes for any bids. Please email crc@nacurh.org for any inquiries.
- The bid must contain a Table of Contents minimally including:
 - Section One: Introduction and Overview
 - Section Two: Planning and Implementation
 - Section Three: Evaluation
 - Section Four: Conference Presentation
- Written bid selection criteria are:
 - Relevance of program to residence hall students
 - Uniqueness of program
 - Overall quality of information presented
 - Demonstrated achievement of goals and objectives
 - Successful communication of conference program presentation plans
 - Relevance of nomination to other schools as a resource for program adaptation and implementation
 - Program impact on residents and the campus community
